FOURTH REGULAR MEETING.

March 15, 1911.

The Fourth regular meeting of the Chapter was held at the Church of St John the Evangelist, St Paul, March 15. The features of the meeting were the organ recital at five o'clock by Mr Fairclough, and the first public service of the Chapter at seven-forty-five o'clock.

Many of the members attended the recital and more came in time for the dinner which was served in the Guild Hall at six-thirty. On account of lack of time, there was no regular business meeting on this date. Following the dinner, Rev. Theodore Sedgwick, Rector of St John's made a short address welcoming the Chapter to St John's and touching on the position of the Organist in church service and on the value of the organization in getting organists together to exchange ideas.

The first public service of the Chapter was held at a quarter before eight. The choir of the church, under the direction of Mr Fairclough sang Maunder's Penitence, Pardon and Peace. Mr Stanley Avery of St Mark's Mpls. played the prelude and Mr P W Thorne of Christ Church, St Paul, the postlude. Mr

Fairclough played the service.

As it is seldom that one organist has a chance to hear another at a service the members of the Chapter enjoyed the service very much and appreciated the opportunity of hearing it.
